Learn from seasoned leaders about the evolving landscape of online marketing, the role of branding and storytelling, and its importance in facilitating business growth.

7. Engaging Stakeholders and Building Partnerships (New)

Identifying key stakeholders and fostering long-lasting relationships with them is crucial for every leader in any line of business. Learn how to effectively collaborate with different types of stakeholders and leverage these partnerships to grow your business and succeed as a leader.

2020 SESSIONS

8. Meet the Boss: The Role of the CFO

Gain a deeper understanding of the role a CFO plays in the strategic planning and management of a company's financial operations, and the skills needed to achieve financial success in your organization.

9. Shifting Business Strategies in the Age of Disruption (New)

As the economy continues to undergo digital transformation, a majority of sectors will be impacted, prompting managers to adapt their business and leadership approach. Join senior executives from a range of industries, such as healthcare, logistics/supply chain, and human resources, to learn how they are responding to technological advancements in their respective sectors.

10. Managing and Leading a Diverse & Inclusive Workforce: Challenges and Opportunities

Learn how you can embrace diversity as a competitive advantage and improve organizational effectiveness. Discuss unconscious biases, blind spots and structural issues that can impede diversity and inclusion in the workplace, and what steps can be taken to cultivate an environment that promotes inclusion. Hear from diversity and inclusion experts as they share their perspectives and highlight the initiatives they are undertaking in their respective organizations.

11. Meet the Boss: The Role of the CTO

Explore the capabilities required to lead, innovate, co-create and build relationships dynamically in a fast-moving digital world. Gain insights from leaders at the forefront of technological innovation and digital transformation.

12. Borderless Communication and Effective Expression (New)

Learn about tools that can help you effectively communicate in an increasingly globalized world, with business operations continuing to expand to different parts of the globe. Impactful presentation and delivery is paramount for a leader to succeed. Develop skills that can help you clearly articulate and express yourself, as businesses increasingly rely on virtual modes of communication.

13. Career Planning: Steps to your Next Promotion and Preparing for Leadership

Learn practical tips to map out your professional development plan and refine your strategic approach to career advancement. Gain insights into the steps needed to move to the next level in your professional journey, whether you are a new manager, or looking to progress from middle management to senior leadership.

WHAT THEY SAID...

"AmCham NextGen Business leadership program 2019 was a great opportunity for me. It offered me the insights and working styles of leaders leading in diverse work environments in variety of industries. It enriched me with the thoughtful approach and abetted me in restructuring my thoughts to align those for the betterment of the society as a whole. I believe the program is a platform for leaders to share experiences, participants to critically examine and align themselves to those thoughts and have a great network building on the side. I would like to thank AECOM to consider me worthy for this amazing opportunity."

Prerak Agarwal
AECOM

"The Next Generation Business Program was a window into the world of high performing CXO's, their journey and insights on their corporate experiences. I felt an authenticity & frankness in the way they addressed the themes as well as the queries from the GBP program attendees. The networking opportunities were excellent and it was good to get out of the echo chambers of each person's typical professional circles and hear from various other segments of the economy."

Jithendra Padmakumar
Australia & New Zealand Bank

"Thank you AmCham NextGen. It was an excellent opportunity to gain perspective from senior executives from different companies. I really enjoyed the sessions with them as well as the opportunity to network with different professionals."
