LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT
SPONSOR

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Now in its ninth year, AmCham Singapore's Next Generation Upgrade Leadership Program (NextGen Upgrade) is a 10-month program that focuses on personal, career, and leadership development.

Challenges confronting leaders have never been more complex, including digital transformation, climate change, economic recession, geopolitics, trade, and other prevailing issues. To withstand this uncertain business climate, leaders need to upgrade themselves with essential knowledge and skills while managing their own energy to achieve peak performance.

NextGen Upgrade aims to strategically leverage the industry expertise and experience of our business community to support the growth of the next generation of leaders.

WHAT WE OFFER

Exposure to an array of world class training modules developed by renowned companies, with opportunities to directly engage with the AmCham member companies leading the modules

Alumni program that continues participants' career development through access to post-program learning and development events and fostering connections through access to commercial leaders on AmCham's Board and Committee Co-Chairs

Opportunities for networking and relationship building with your NextGen peers and alumni throughout the program, including an orientation, mid-year networking session, and closing ceremony

TARGET PARTICIPANTS

This program is designed for mid-level managers seeking to develop their leadership skills and the foundational expertise needed to thrive in disruptive times.

Professionals, Managers and Executives (PMEs) with plans to expand their portfolio and advance into senior leadership
